

ARMIES IN FIELD ARE VIRTUALLY DEADLOCKED

RUMORS STILL PERSIST THAT ROUMANIA WILL SOON ENTER WAR

Neither Side Claims Any New Progress in the West—Italy is Reported to be Rushing Troops to Her Islands in the Aegean Sea to Prepare for Eventualities.

London, Jan. 11.—(10:30 p. m.)—Only a change in the weather or the entrance into the war of Roumania or Italy, or both, is likely to bring about any marked change in the military situation in Europe for some time to come.

What turn the weather will take no one can predict, but the belief is growing to those countries allied against Germany, Austria and Turkey that Roumania, with her well trained army of not less than 400,000 men will throw herself into the conflict at an early date. This in effect would link Roumania with the extreme Russian left now forcing its way into Hungary through Bukovina.

Taking into consideration the Servians and Montenegrins, this would form a line menacing Austria-Hungary along the entire southeastern frontier from Russia to the Adriatic.

Just as rumors persisted for days prior to Turkey's entrance into the war on the side of Germany which tended to discount the step when it was eventually taken, so rumors now center about Roumania and Italy. There is a strong feeling among the general public in France and England that definite action will not long be delayed. Meanwhile the armies already in the field in the east and west remain virtually deadlocked.

In Alsace the French continue, by sapping and sporadic charges, attempts to force their way nearer the Rhine, but there has been snow in the Vosges and it is noticeable that neither side claims any new progress. The Germans threw heavy reinforcements into Alsace after the recent French advance and apparently they have been able to hold their ground, in view of the failure of the French to consolidate the positions they took after much hard fighting.

With a comparative lull in this quarter and artillery duels predominating near the Belgian coast, fighting of a desperate character has broken out in the center, notably to the northwest of Soissons, which through bombardments, seems likely to suffer the fate of Rheims, and further east, in the vicinity of Perthes and Beausejour, from which points the allies have been trying to reach the important railway to the north, the seizure of which would cut one of the German main arteries of communication.

The official communications of the contending nations do not agree as to the outcome of the recent fighting in these areas. The allies claim to have forced ahead from Soissons; the Germans say these attacks have not been fruitful and that fighting is proceeding.

The allies contend that they have advanced north of Perthes and still hold the ground at Beausejour to the north and east.

The Germans make no mention of fighting to the north of Perthes but maintain that they have advanced east of the village. The fighting in the vicinity of Beausejour, which the allies consider so important, they ignore. Neither East Prussia nor Poland furnishes any change in the general situation and strangely the Russians have added little with reference to the expected invasion of Hungary by way of Bukovina, although more than a week ago, they claimed to be at the threshold. It is conceded however, that practically the whole of Bukovina is now in Russian hands and despatches reaching London from Bucharest say that thousands of fugitives from that territory are crossing the Rumanian frontier, some of them proceeding to Vienna. It is in the development of Bukovina that interest is now centered, as it is believed to have an immediate bearing on the Rumanian situation.

The British military experts conceding that there is a virtual deadlock elsewhere, are marking time, pending the crisis.

Little authentic information has been received regarding the Turkish army in the Caucasus since Russia dealt it such a heavy blow. Italy, according to latest reports, is rushing troops to her islands in the Aegean sea off the coast of Asia Minor so she may be prepared for eventualities.

The report that Turkey was preparing to invade Egypt with a camel corps is followed tonight by a report that Turkey has abandoned its enterprise, fearing the disembarkation of troops in Syria which would threaten her line of communication.

KNICKERBOCKER QUARTET.
The Knickerbocker Quartet which appeared at the Grand last night proved a big drawing card and the singers were in fine voice and pleased the audience greatly. Manager Johnson made no mistake when he billed them for Jacksonville.

Dr. F. A. Norris was called Monday to a point near Ashland and finding it necessary to make the trip by auto, had a muddy drive of more than forty miles before his return.

DECLARES BELLIGERENTS HAVE BELGIUM IN A RING OF STEEL

Belgian Banker States There are Virtually 7,000,000 People Dependent on American Commission for Food.

London, Jan. 11.—(11 p. m.)—"The civil army we have to feed is greater than the British and French armies combined. Yet we can scrape through on about $6,250,000 worth of food a month."

This statement was made today by Emil Franqui, a prominent Belgian banker who is on a brief visit to London in connection with relief work in Belgium in the organization of which he played a conspicuous part.

It was not generally realized M. Franqui said that there still were 7,000,000 persons in Belgium who were virtually entirely dependent for food on the American relief commission.

"In all the history of the world," M. Franqui continued, "there is no precedent for a community of 7,000,000 souls being faced with starvation and denied by the belligerents of every possible means of self preservation. We indeed are the Ishmael of Europe. You in England say you cannot trade with us because to do so would be to trade with your enemy. You say you cannot open the port of Antwerp, our door of relief because it would be of advantage to Germany. You say you cannot send us money because it might reach your enemy. Thus the Germans, the French and the British have a ring of steel around our territory through which none may enter and none may depart without the permission of the belligerents."

"The Germans say, 'If England likes to trade with Antwerp your industries will revive. If she does not—well, we are sorry but we suppose you must take the consequences. See The Hague convention.'"

While the belligerents argued M. Franqui added 7,000,000 persons were confronted with actual starvation but with the formation of American relief commission the obstacles in the way of ministering to the wants of the Belgians were overcome and shipments of food were permitted to enter Belgium by way of Rotterdam. This relief could not have been given, he added, except under the auspices of the neutral commission.

"We are proud of our thrifty race," M. Franqui said in conclusion, "but we are now at the mercy of the world. If mercy is not accorded us we shall no longer exist."

WHEAT NEARER PANICKY MARKET THAN AT ANY TIME FOR MONTHS

Entire Trade is Semi-Demoralized for a Brief Period, with Prices Melting Away Fast—Show of Steadiness is Finally Brought About.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—Wheat came nearer to a panicky market today than at any time for months. There were many cases in which big houses with selling orders could not find buyers. The entire trade was semi-demoralized during a brief period with prices melting away fast, but a show of relative steadiness was finally brought about.

It was not until wheat values had broken down 8 1/4c a bushel under the top notch war price reached a few days ago that frantic sellers could be forced to recognize that confirmation was lacking for nerve racking stories that the Dardanelles forts were at the point of surrender and that as a result the world would be flooded with Russian wheat. The fact remained that bearish sentiment had acquired immense impetus owing to recent threats of call for government interference because of threats of six cent bread and in consequence of the possibility that hostilities by Italy, Roumania and Greece would mean a stop to the war sooner than had been generally expected.

United States District Attorney Cline refused to comment today on assertions that a new federal grand jury to be sworn in here next Monday would investigate rocketing prices of food stuffs. It was said the cost of meat as well as of wheat and flour would be inquired into. Announcement was made that "bread booths" would be established by the Chicago Municipal Markets Commission if the price of wheat loaves here should go to "famine" figures.

TWO WOMEN LEGISLATORS CARRY POINTS OVER MANY MALE VOTES

PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 11.—Arizona's two women legislators taking opposite sides of the smoking question carried their points and established the supremacy of a single feminine wish over a large number of male votes in the house and senate today.

Mrs. Rachael Barry, member of the house from Apache county, dislikes smoking and the motion for bidding it inspired by her, carried in the house.

Mrs. Frances W. Munds, member of the senate from Yavapai county, not only approves of smoking but insists that the male legislators continue to smoke during the session. She had little difficulty in securing the passage in the senate of a motion to that effect.

Judge M. T. Layman will go to Cass county today to attend the circuit court.

SPEAKERSHIP FIGHT NO NEARER SOLUTION

"WET" AND "DRY" LEADERS DECLARE SUPPORTERS WILL NOT COMPROMISE

McBride Expects Province to Receive Republican Caucus Nomination and is Hopeful That "Wets" Will Fall Into Line—Opponents Look For Selection of a "Dark Horse" Candidate.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 11.—All political signs tonight pointed to a continuation of the speakership deadlock in the house. To a perceptible degree, the wet and dry issue has been drawn into the contest until a considerable percent of the assemblymen look to see the struggle settled along that sort of an alignment.

J. Scott McBride, state superintendent of the Illinois Anti-saloon League, and Ernest Kunde of Chicago, president of the Liquor Dealers' Protective Association of Illinois, both arrived today in belligerent moods and both declared there would be no compromise on the part of their respective supporters.

McBride expects Walter M. Provine, the only formal candidate before the Republican house caucus, to receive the caucus nomination for speaker tomorrow morning. With that step taken he is hopeful that with assurances of fair treatment for their measures, the Republican wets will fall into line for the caucus nominee.

Kunde made a statement that "a seventeen Republican wets will stand together to the finish and that none of them will support Provine."

The general opinion among members is that both are mistaken. It is generally believed that several of the seventeen wet Republicans who have stood out against the party caucus will vote for the caucus nominee, whether it be Provine or some one else. There is no one however, that believes that all the Republican wets will do this.

Friends of Mr. Provine are confident that he will be able to muster sufficient votes in the party caucus called for 9 o'clock tomorrow to make him the speakership nominee. Those who are opposing his candidacy and are looking ultimately for the selection of a "dark horse" candidate declare that the Taylorville candidate is tied hand and foot and that as fast as he secures additional strength from new quarters he will lose some of his supporters he already has.

It is not impossible that those who have been preventing Mr. Provine's nomination may permit it tomorrow, confident that it will be impossible for him to get sufficient votes on the floor of the house to elect him.

One thing appears certain—there is no possibility of the election of a Republican dry with the aid of Democratic dry votes. A number of Republicans who are participating in the party caucus and have served notice on their colleagues that they would not consider themselves bound to the caucus choice after any Democratic votes had been cast for him.

All hopes of the Democrats for the immediate seating of men of their political faith in the two vacant senate seats, caused by contests in Cook county districts, were shattered today when Senator W. Duff Piercy of Mt. Vernon announced he would vote to seat no one until after a re-count of the ballots is held in the contested eleventh and twenty-third districts.

Without Piercy's vote the Democrats in the senate will not have strength enough to pass the Gorman resolution which would seat Thomas F. Dyrn and Joseph Strauss, the Democrats who were declared elected by the state canvassing board.

Although the senate committee on committees did not hold their scheduled meeting tonight it was understood that the following committee chairmen have been agreed upon tentatively:

M. H. Cleary of Galena—Appropriations.

Edward J. Glackin of Chicago—Utilities.

F. Jeff Tossey of Toledo—Education.

Walter I. Manny of Mt. Sterling—Judicial.

All of these men are Democrats.

INJUNCTION HALTS SLAUGHTER OF CATTLE EXPOSED TO DISEASE

Fox River Farmer Contends It is Not Necessary to Kill Cattle When the Herds are Quarantined Strictly.

Elgin, Ill., Jan. 11.—The slaughter of Illinois cattle because of exposure to foot and mouth disease was halted today by an injunction granted by Judge C. P. Irwin of the circuit court restraining Dr. O. E. Dyrn, state veterinarian, from killing cattle of a herd at the state school for girls at Geneva and any other animals of the state merely because they have been exposed to or are afflicted with hoof and mouth disease. Wallace Norton, a farmer near Geneva, acting for several farmers of the Fox River Valley who maintain that it is not necessary to slay cattle with the disease when the herds are quarantined strictly, got the injunction.

Luis Huck, chief expert of the bureau of animal industry left Washington for northern Illinois today to investigate the progress of the disease, according to a telegram from Congressman Copley.

War News Summarized

Only sporadic fighting is taking place on any of the battle fronts according to the latest reports and this is almost all between the artillery branches of the opposing armies.

Probably the heaviest infantry engagement occurred on the lower Aida river, in southern Poland where the Austrians claim they repulsed with severe losses Russian attempts to cross the stream at several places. No victories of strategic value are claimed by either side at any place and no repulses are forecast by any of the war chancelleries. In fact the situation everywhere remains virtually as it has for some time past.

Rain and mud hamper any attempts at maneuvering by the armies in the low lying lands, while in the Vosges snow has almost stopped the severe attacks and counter-attacks that prevailed throughout last week when the French were trying to gain additional ground in Alsace and the Germans were endeavoring to hold them back.

The Austrians charge that the Russians are using Austro-Hungarian uniforms in order to catch Austrian patrols. It is declared the rights of belligerents will not be accorded Russians who are captured so masquerading.

A Berlin wireless despatch asserts the French Dreadnaught Courbet was recently torpedoed by an Austrian submarine in the Adriatic and later was rammed by her sister ship, the Jean Bart and sank. The Jean Bart was damaged and docked at Malta.

German aircraft again have been busy raiding in Northern France. Six persons were killed in Dunkirk and the suburb of Malo by bombs dropped from aeroplanes and several are reported to have met death from missiles in St. Pol and Audenkerke. The Germans did not escape unscathed. Three of their machines were brought down by shell fire, two near Dunkirk and another near Amiens. Two hostile aeroplanes approached Paris Sunday but are reported to have fled when French air scouts gave chase.

Turkey has introduced in parliament a bill calling for an extraordinary war credit of $43,800,000.

It is announced that The Netherlands war loan of $110,000,000 has been oversubscribed.

A news agency despatch says the Italians are strengthening their garrisons in the Aegean Islands and that the islands are being strongly fortified.

A news agency despatch from Berlin announces that the sentence of death imposed on Private William Lonsdale, an English soldier prisoner for his taking his guards has been commuted to twenty years imprisonment.

Athens reports that the contemplated movement of the eighth Turkish army corps from Damascus to the Egyptian frontier has been abandoned.

KENTUCKY GRAND JURY PROBES OPERATIONS OF NIGHT RIDERS

GREENVILLE, Ky., Jan. 11.—Under instructions from Circuit Court Judge Rhea, the Mullenburg county grand jury today began investigating the operations of bands of night riders in this section.

Recently a white man was decoyed at night from his home near here and hanged to a tree. At various times men and women have been seized, stripped and flogged and on two occasions tenant houses in mining camps have been riddled with bullets.

The night riders originally harassed coal operators in Western Kentucky who employed non-union labor. Later for no known reason the warfare was extended to farmers, business men and other individuals.

DUNNE TO GIVE RECEPTION.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 11.—Invitations were issued from the executive mansion today by Governor and Mrs. Dunne for a reception to be given Wednesday night of this week at the mansion for members of the general assembly. This is the first of the usual series of social affairs to be arranged for the assemblymen at the executive mansion while the legislative session is in progress.

DEMANDS WAR CREDIT.

London, Jan. 11.—(11:50 p. m.)—Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent sends a despatch from Constantinople received there which says the Turkish government has introduced in parliament a bill demanding an extraordinary credit of 10,000,000 pounds sterling. Turkish (Turkish pound is $4.38) for war expenditures. Next year's budget, it was stated, will show a deficit of 20,000,000 pounds sterling Turkish, in which is included the 10,000,000 pounds credit just demanded.

INSURANCE MAN DIES SUDDENLY

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 11.—J. W. Freund, secretary of the Marquette Life Insurance company of this city, died suddenly this evening while making a speech.

Tokio, Jan. 12.—Owing to the war Japan has decided not to send any warships to the Panama-Pacific exposition.

GEN. SCOTT CONCLUDES PEACE NEGOTIATIONS

MEXICAN FACTIONS SIGN AGREEMENT REGARDING BORDER WARFARE

American Chief of Staff Will Leave for Washington Today—Carranza Troops Hold Monterey—Iturbide Appears in Washington—Gen. Dozal is Court Martialed.

Naco, Ariz., Jan. 11.—Brig. Gen. Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the United States army, successfully concluded tonight negotiations for peace along the Mexican border. Both Governor Maytorena, the Villa commander and General Calles, commanding the Carranza troops in Naco, Sonora, have signed the agreement eliminating factional warfare along the Sonora border.

The revision of the agreement previously signed by General Calles and his immediate superior, General Hill was again signed today by General Calles and then was sent to Governor Maytorena, at his camp seven miles southeast of here. It was returned to General Scott late tonight.

Tomorrow morning General Scott will leave for Washington after twenty three days spent here negotiating with the factional leaders and at Juarez discussing the matter with General Villa.

Carranza Troops Hold Monterey.
Laredo, Texas, Jan. 11.—Monterey held by Carranza troops, according to reports here tonight, which said General Herrera arrived there today with a large force. When Herrera's troops approached Monterey the citizens mistook them for Villa troops and for a while pandemonium reigned. Banks and business establishments generally were closed, telegraph operators deserted their offices and there was a general flight from the city.

General Herrera hurriedly sent out scouts who informed the populace that no Villa troops were in sight and tonight conditions were approaching normal again.

Iturbide in Washington.

Washington, Jan. 11.—General Eduardo Iturbide the former commander of Mexican federal district, who recently succeeded in escaping from his native land after representations by the United States government had rescued him from imprisonment at the capital, appeared in Washington today. He called at the British embassy for news of his wife and children who took refuge in the British legation at Mexico City. Iturbide was commander of the federal district.

Court Martial General Dozal.

On Board U. S. Steamship San Diego, at San Diego, Cal., Jan. 11.—General Juan Dozal, Carranza's governor for the state of Tepic, was overhauled at sea, while fleeing to San Diego last Saturday and was taken back to Mazatlan and court martialed.

Wireless reports today carrying this news to Rear-Admiral Howard in command of the Pacific fleet, said that the sentence of the court had been withheld from publication.

JAPANESE SHIP RESCUES 170 PEOPLE FROM STEAMER NILE

TOKIO, Jan. 12.—The Steamer Fukuju Maru reports by wireless that she has rescued and is bringing to Kobe 170 persons comprising all the passengers and the crew of the Peninsular and Oriental Steamship company's steamer Nile, which ran ashore on a reef in the inland sea early Monday morning.

It is believed the Nile sank after she was pulled off the reef near Iwajima. The vessel was on a voyage from London to Yokohama. She was in command of Captain Powell.

FARMER AVERTS WRECK.

Edwardsville, Ill., Jan. 11.—A head-on collision between a freight and passenger train on the Toledo-St. Louis and Western (Clover Leaf) railroad crestle near here was narrowly averted today by Jacob Merkel, a farmer, who perceiving that there had been a misunderstanding of orders, flagged first one train and then the other. The trains were speeding towards each other on a single track each hidden from the other's view by a curve.

WILL TAKE OFFICE TODAY.

Columbus, O., Jan. 11.—Frank B. Willis of Ada, Ohio, former congressman and college professor, tomorrow will take up active duties as governor of Ohio. With simple but impressive ceremonies the new governor with four other state officials was inducted into office here today.

HOPE DEFEATS INMAN.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 11.—Willie Hope, world's balk line champion, defeated Melbourne Inman, the English champion here this afternoon at 18.2 billiards, score 500 to 48.

High runs and averages: Hope, 127, 38 6-13; Inman, 7, 4.

TO CIRCULATE SALOON PETITION.

Waterloo, Iowa, Jan. 11.—A large gathering of men met at Armory hall tonight to start the circulation of a saloon petition. Waterloo has been "dry" two years during which time a former petition should be practiced in the middle west, according to the opinion of President H. J. Waters of the Kansas Agricultural College as voiced in an address at the opening of farmer's week at the University of Missouri today.

CHARGES TWO ORGANIZED BALL PLAYERS WERE TRADED FOR DOGS

Affidavit Filed by Federal Relate in Great Detail Alleged Indignities Offered to Players.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—A score of affidavits relating in great detail the alleged indignities offered ball players by officials of organized baseball, together with copies of the national agreement, stenographic reports of speeches by baseball magnates and copies of contracts and telegrams by which the Federal League hopes to win the suit filed a week ago against organized baseball were filed today in the federal court.

The affidavits are headed by a lengthy document from Joseph Tinker, now manager of the Chicago Federals at a salary of $12,500 a year. Tinker became a Federal, he said, when C. H. Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn National League club offered him only $5,000 a year, according to the affidavit. Tinker wanted $7,500.

Ebbets termed this sum exorbitant and wrote Tinker:

"While we expect to become a first division team, yes a possible championship contender, with all our bright prospects, it is nevertheless unreasonable for us to pay you more than you have ever received as a player for a championship club."

Tinker also made strong objection to the ten days clause of the players contracts. It allows the indiscriminate sale of all ball players he said.

Mordecai Brown's affidavit relates the cases of two ball players who he says were traded for dogs. "Joe Cantillon, manager of the Minneapolis club of the American association, at one time traded a professional ball player for a bull dog," he said. "Your affiant also believes that Roger Bresnahan, while manager of the St. Louis club of the National League, traded a professional player, a pitcher named Hopper, to Dick Kinsella, then manager of the Springfield, Ills. club, in the Three I League, for a bird dog."

Opportunity for advancement is denied the players, according to William H. Watkins, business manager of the Indianapolis Federals.

DECISION DETERMINES STATUS OF MOTHER TEACHERS IN NEW YORK

Commissioner Rules Teacher May not be Dismissed Because She Absents Herself From School to Bear a Child.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 11.—A teacher may not be dismissed because she absents herself from the public schools to bear a child, Commissioner John H. Finley of the state department of education decided today. The decision definitely determines the status of mother teachers in the state as, under existing laws there is no appeal.

By the decision today Mrs. Bridget Peixotto, a teacher who became a mother while absent without leave and who was dismissed by the New York City board of education for neglect of duty, was ordered reinstated. Decisions in five other mother-teacher appears are expected soon.

Mrs. Peixotto who was dismissed in April, 1913, carried her case to the courts and the court of appeals decided the determination of the question rested with the commissioner of education.

Mr. Finley's decision pointed out that a law providing that a woman teachers' position automatically became vacant when she married had been declared unconstitutional.

His conclusion was: "The board should have accepted the natural corollary of its policy, voluntary or enforced of employing or retaining married women teachers and should have given at least as favorable consideration to an absence for childbirth as is normally given to absences asked for reasons of personal convenience, or minor or grave illness or for purposes of study and travel or for improving health."

Dismissal for general inefficiency Mr. Finley held would be warranted if upon return a teacher was found to be unable, after trial to perform school duties.

"But it is difficult to conceive," the decision read, "how a reasonable, unwillful absence due to natural unavoidable cause, would be construed as neglect of duty and it is difficult to understand why an absence for the most creditable social reason should be so treated."

FAVORS EXTENSIVE FARMING.

Columbia, Mo., Jan. 11.—Extensive rather than intensive farming should be practiced in the middle west, according to the opinion of President H. J. Waters of the Kansas Agricultural College as voiced in an address at the opening of farmer's week at the University of Missouri today.

HOPE DEFEATS INMAN.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 11.—Willie Hope, world's balk line champion, defeated Melbourne Inman, the English champion here this afternoon at 18.2 billiards, score 500 to 48.

High runs and averages: Hope, 127, 38 6-13; Inman, 7, 4.

TO VOTE ON SUFFRAGE RESOLUTION TODAY

MANY SUPPORTERS AND OPPONENTS OF MEASURE ARRIVE IN CAPITAL

Supporters Claim to Have About a Majority in House—Antis Say Only One Third of House Vote Will be Cast for Resolution.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Lines were drawn today for the battle in the house tomorrow on the Mondell resolution proposing an amendment to the federal constitution guaranteeing the right to vote to all citizens regardless of sex. The resolution will be voted upon before the house adjourns tomorrow.

Large delegations of supporters and opponents of woman suffrage already have arrived in Washington. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National American Woman's Suffrage association; Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the International Woman's Suffrage Alliance, and the congressional committee of the National association were preparing tonight for the suffrage side of the fight and conferring with the supporters of the amendment among the members of the house.

The suffrage efforts were directed by Mrs. Arthur M. Lodge, president of the national association opposed to woman suffrage, and a committee of that organization. The anti-suffragettes claimed that the resolution would not only fail to receive the two thirds vote of the house necessary for its submission to the states but that it would get about one third of the votes in the body. Suffragists however, claimed to have a majority of the house behind the measure.

Under an agreement reached today the house will meet at 11 o'clock tomorrow instead of noon. A special rule for the consideration of the suffrage resolution will be brought in by Chairman Henry of the rules committee and it is expected the rule will be adopted after a brief debate. Then will follow six hours discussion of the Mondell resolution. Anticipating a record-breaking attendance of spectators, the doorkeeper and sergeant-at-arms at the house tonight made arrangements for handling the crowd. The galleries will be opened at 10 o'clock and extra door-keepers will be on hand to see that spectators are admitted in order.

Urges Passage of Bill.

Prompt passage of the bill to extend the scope of self-government enjoyed by the Filipinos was urged today by Secretary Garrison of the war department as logically the next step in the long recognized policy of the United States toward the islanders. The measure's preamble declaring the purpose of the United States to grant complete independence when a stable government has been set up. Mr. Garrison declared to be but a reiteration of promises made by successive Republican administrations. The secretary appeared before the senate's Philippine committee as the last witness at public hearings on the pending bill that have been in progress for several weeks. He had prepared a statement tracing the American policy toward the Philippines since the Spanish war and explaining that the present bill improperly styled an "independence bill" would provide merely for a further test of the Filipino's capacity for self-government.

Debate is Again Held Up.

Debate on the ship purchase bill was again held up today in the senate by continued discussion of the District of Columbia appropriation measure. The district bill probably will be passed tomorrow, but the conference report on the immigration bill may delay consideration of the ship measure at least another day.

Urges Treaty Ratification.

Urging in the on senate today early ratification of the treaty with Colombia under which the United States would pay $25,000,000 for the Panama canal strip, Senator Randall declared that the United States could not afford to reject the treaty from the standpoint of either justice or business.

TO CREATE NAVAL GRADES.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Creation of the grades of admiral of the fleet and vice-admiral to be held temporarily by the commander-in-chief and second in rank, respectively, of the Atlantic, Pacific and Asiatic fleets is proposed in an amendment to the naval appropriation adopted today by the house naval committee. The navy department wanted these titles held permanently by the men gaining them but the committee decided that rank and pay above the grade of rear-admiral should be granted only for the period an officer serves as commander or second in command of a fleet.

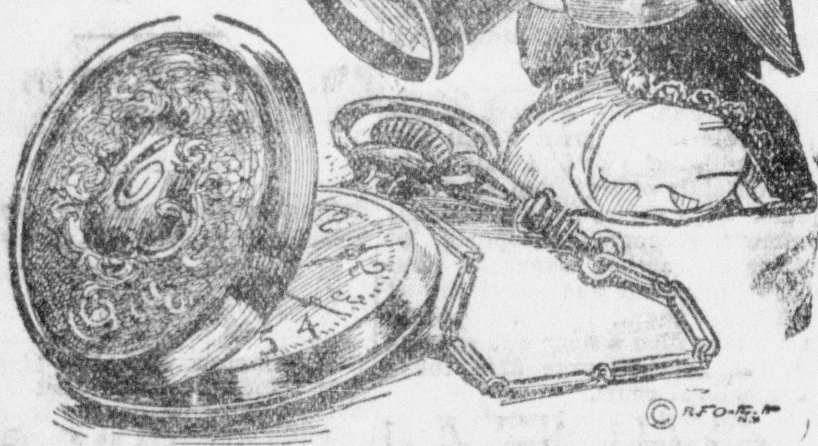

EARTHQUAKE SHAKES BAKERSFIELD.

Bakersfield, Calif., Jan. 11.—An earthquake from northwest to south west shook Bakersfield slightly tonight. The tremor was felt distinctly in office buildings and in the residence district but no harm was done.

ILLINOIS DEFEATS INDIANA

Urbana, Ills., Jan. 11.—The University of Illinois basketball team defeated the Indiana five 34 to 14 in a western conference game here tonight.

Judge Thomson's Ruling.

The sentence passed by Judge Thomson in the county court Monday in the case of Frank Cox, charged with violating the local option law was something of a surprise. The state's attorney had agreed to a compromise if Cox would plead guilty to one count. This action was taken and it was the state's attorney's request that the court give Cox the maximum which would be 30 days in jail and a fine of $200. Judge Thomson however assessed a fine of $75 and made the jail sentence 15 days. Judge Thomson when asked about the decision last night stated that he took into consideration the condition of the defendant physically and financially. He said Cox is not in good health and that the fine and costs will run to about $104. He believed that Cox would have to lay this fine out in jail at the rate of $1.50 a day and that the total time in jail would therefore be sixty to eighty days. Had the defendant been a man of means who could pay a fine in cash the court would have given a long jail sentence. Judge Thomson further expressed the view that when a man enters a plea of guilty instead of standing trial that he is usually given the minimum punishment rather than the maximum. The decision however was somewhat disheartening to Chief of Police Davis who secured the evidence against Cox. The defendant has been a frequent offender and has a government license.

Injunction Halts Cattle Slaughter.

There will be a vast amount of official interest in the final decision of the injunction which was granted at Elgin yesterday whereby a veterinary was enjoined from killing a number of cattle exposed to the foot and mouth disease. The injunction was issued after an attorney had set forth claims that it has been demonstrated that the disease can be cured by proper treatment. The veterinarian had intended killing a number of cows belonging to the state school at Geneva.

Veterinarians have maintained that the only way that the disease can be surely stamped out is by killing all cattle that have been exposed and if it can be proved in the case at Elgin that other methods will accomplish the same end the proceedings will result in a great saving to the state and will point to a vast amount of useless extravagance in the past.

More of the Ideal in Politics.

The belief that five city officials could be found to serve the city during the next four years without pay will not go down in some quarters at least. A well known attorney suggested yesterday that this very task of pushing such a movement and securing the co-operation of five such citizens would be an excellent work for the chamber of commerce to undertake. This citizen argues that while the chamber of commerce fills a need, that its efforts are often along the line of the impossible, and that work to secure factories may be put in this class. He believes, however, that if the chamber of commerce directors were to seriously inaugurate a movement to secure high class representative citizens willing to serve as mayor and commissioners without salary, that by this very movement the chamber of commerce would accomplish so much for the city that every citizen would be convinced as to the useful service rendered.

This citizen believes that twenty-five men could be found willing to accept these offices without salary, and that from this list certainly five qualified men could be chosen as representatives of various parties and creeds and sections of the city, that their election could be secured. He concedes that there would be quite a body of citizens who would be inclined to impugn the motives of five men who agreed to serve in this way, yet he believes that this feeling on the part of some people that the possible candidates were impelled by other motives than pure patriotism could be offset by securing men of acknowledged character and ability. Further this man agrees that mutual concession would be necessary, and that some sacrifices would also be necessary if high class men were found to render this service.

The whole idea has much about it of interest, much about it of value, and it certainly appeals to one as appropriate to conditions that ought to exist in a city of this size. Such a plan practically means the wiping out of all politics, of all jealousies. It implies that men could be secured to hold the offices who could first of all convince the people that they had no other motive than "up lift" who would be willing to give and take in the matter of their own opinions so far as their relations with their fellows were concerned, and implies many other things which border upon the Utopian. The plan is worth talking about, thinking about, and debating, but there are many pitfalls and obstacles which must be encountered by those who undertake the accomplishment of any such worthy proposition.

MORTUARY

Schragg.

Word has been received in the city of the death of Miss Mary Schragg, which occurred Sunday morning at her home in Trenton, Ill. Miss Schragg was a cousin of Walter Schragg, D. G. and J. P. Claus of this city.

Mrs. J. P. Claus left yesterday for Trenton to attend the funeral which will be held today at 2 o'clock.

Burnett.

Death came to Joseph Burnett, 332 West Morgan street, Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. He had been ill for the past six weeks, suffering from Bright's disease. He had been a resident of Jacksonville for about six years. Mr. Burnett was born June 23, 1866 in Missouri and came to Morgan county about forty years ago. He married Miss Etta Hughes Dec. 24, 1891 at Waverly. The deceased was a member of Centenary church and a member of I. O. O. F. Virden lodge No. 534. He was the son of James Burnett and Sarah Maxfield. The following children survive him: Perry, Bessie, Nettie, James, Emory and Samuel Lesteh, also one brother William in Springfield.

The funeral will be held this morning from the residence on Morgan street at 10:30 o'clock. The services will be in charge of Rev. F. A. McCarty. The body will be shipped to Franklin this afternoon at 2:08 where interment will be made in the Franklin cemetery.

Hungerford.

Mrs. Mary Ann Hungerford, aged 81 years, passed away at the Old People's home, about nine o'clock Monday morning. She was taken ill Sunday. Death was due to arterio sclerosis. She has no relatives living. Mrs. Hungerford was born in Casey county, Kentucky, May 31, 1834. She entered the Old People's home from Scottville Feb. 5, 1908. The funeral will be held today at 10 o'clock in charge of Rev. Mr. Pontius, pastor of the Central Christian church. Interment will be made in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Morrissey.

Michael White and Miss Mary White left Monday evening for New Berlin, called by the death of their aunt, Mrs. Patrick Morrissey, whose funeral will be held this morning at 10 o'clock from the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Springfield. Mrs. Morrissey passed away Sunday morning at 4 o'clock from a complication of diseases following a paralytic affection. She had been in bad health for the past year and for the last four months was bed-ridden.

Mrs. Morrissey, whose maiden name was Mary Kress, was born in Bates, Sangamon county, forty eight years ago. She resided in Bates until two years ago when she and her husband removed to New Berlin. She leaves besides her husband, one daughter, Mrs. John Stapleton of Bates and three grandchildren. She was a devout member of St. Mary's church and was at all times a consistent Christian.

Newell.

Mrs. Mary Newell died at her home in Ashland Sunday at one p. m. The cause of her death was pneumonia and she was sick but three days.

Mrs. Newell was born in county Roscoma, Ireland, in 1832 and came to this country in 1850. The family first lived eight years in New York after which they moved to Illinois and settled three miles north of Ashland where they lived till 1867 when they moved to a farm seven miles south of Ashland where they remained forty years. Seven years ago Mrs. Newell moved with her daughter, Mary, to Ashland and lived in the northwest part of that place till her death. Her husband, Thomas Newell, died in 1887. She leaves four sons, John J., William and Thomas, all of Morgan county; and James, of Cass county; three daughters, Mrs. Gus Johnson, of Leigh, Nebraska; Mrs. Kate Holligan, residing near Jacksonville, and Mary, at home; also 21 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

The funeral will be conducted Wednesday morning at ten o'clock at St. Augustine church by Rev. F. D. Murphy; burial in Catholic cemetery.

Lyng.

Mrs. William G. Benson Monday received a telegram stating that her father Edward Lyng had passed away at his home in Belleville, Canada. The deceased was 81 years of age and a well known resident of his home city. His wife and several sons and daughters survive.

LEFT FOR THE WEST.

Miss Margaret King Moore left Sunday night for Kansas City, en route to Salt Lake City to assume a position on the faculty of Westminster college there. Miss Moore was preceptress at the college some years ago and subsequently a member of the faculty. She had planned to spend this year at her home here, but the illness of one of the teachers occasioned a vacancy which the college authorities could not readily fill, and she therefore agreed to accept it for the remainder of this year. Miss Moore has been very active the past year in the management of free kindergarten affairs, and has the college class at Westminster Sunday school, so that her unexpected going at this time will occasion several vacancies in Jacksonville.

Miss Pearl Williams of Peoria was among those who attended the Home Coming of the Young Woman's Aid society of the First Baptist church last night, and sang a solo.

MELVIN O. SMITH AND WIFE MET WITH ACCIDENT SUNDAY

Were Returning to Their Home near Concord When Horse Runs Away.—Mr. Smith Suffers Four Fractured Ribs.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin O. Smith of the Grace Chapel neighborhood met with a painful accident Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock as the result of their horse running away. Mr. Smith suffered four fractured ribs and Mrs. Smith was badly bruised.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith had been to church at Concord after which they went to the home of his father, James C. Smith. They started home and on passing the Silcox levee district their horse became frightened at some boys who were skating on ice that had been formed at the side of the road. The animal turned squarely around, upsetting the buggy. Mrs. Smith was caught in the top of the rig and Mr. Smith was thrown to the ground. The horse broke loose from the buggy and ran some distance before it was picked up.

The injured people were taken to their home by a neighbor and Dr. A. E. Obermeyer was called. He found that Mr. Smith had suffered from four fractured ribs, which were broken near the backbone. He also had a fracture of the right arm, between the wrist and elbow and had evidences of internal injuries.

Mrs. Smith received minor bruises and an incomplete fracture of two ribs on the right side. Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith account themselves lucky that they escaped as well as they did.

JEFFRIES' BAND CONCERT WAS WELL ATTENDED

Receipts Sunday Afternoon From Offering Were $60.29.

The concert given at the opera house Sunday afternoon by the Jeffries band attracted a very large audience although the weather was unfavorable. There was no admission fee charged and the total amount in the free will offering was $60.29. This sum was not very much less than on the previous Sunday when the figure was about $89. The audience Sunday, however, was much larger than the previous week. Next Sunday the band will give a sacred concert at Northminster church when the same plan will be followed and there will be no admission fee but a collection will be taken. The following Sunday it is the intention to resume the series at the opera house. The band has recently acknowledged a contribution from G. M. Luttrell of $5.00 toward their deficit.

ENTERTAINED GUESTS.

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE

CAUSES CLUB ADJOURNMENT

Deeming it unwise during the present prevalence of foot and mouth disease to run unnecessary risk of transmitting the same, members of the Woman's Country Club of Orleans have decided upon indefinite postponement of their winter's program. Today a meeting was to have been held with Mrs. J. W. Arnold and in two weeks the schedule calls for another at the home of Mrs. C. H. Bennett of Orleans. Mrs. James T. Holmes, the president, notified the members of the arrangement Monday morning and it is not certain when the meetings will continue. On taking up their program, the women will most likely assemble with Mrs. Arnold.

REPORT INCORRECT.

A report that Dr. S. J. Carter had attended the cows on the farms of B. C. Madison and M. Schneider before they were declared sick with foot and mouth disease was incorrect. Dr. Carter says he had not been at either place for several years past.

WILL MAKE BANDAGES FOR EUROPEAN SOLDIERS.

A number of ladies have agreed to make bandages to be forwarded to war stricken Europe. Anyone willing to assist with this work is invited to join the company at the home of Mrs. Johns, 203 North Church street, today between the hours of 10 and 5 o'clock.

BATTLE OF WITS ENLIVEN WAGE ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS

Attorney for Railroads Attacks Comparative Tables Introduced by Statistician Lauck.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—An all-day battle of wits enlivened the western railroad wage arbitration proceedings today. James M. Sheehan, attorney for the railroads, discharged a quiver full of interrogation points at a target composed of the comparative tables introduced by W. J. Lauck, a statistician, placed on the witness stand by the men.

The arrows struck several times but Lauck insisted that the target was none the worse of the blows. The witness made many admissions calculated by Sheehan to impair the usefulness of the statistics but Lauck clung to his basic contention, namely, that the compilations made under his direction never pretended to be a mathematical nicety but do prove that the whole tendency since the wage arbitration of 1910 has been to require more work of engineers on a decreasing scale of compensation.

W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, returned to the case after an absence in Austin, Texas, occasioned by the death of his mother. He disappeared from court almost immediately, however, to prepare what he promised would be quotations from the writings of railroad managers tending to prove the contentions of the men.

"I will, among others, quote you," said Carter, nodding in the direction of W. L. Park, vice-president of the Illinois Central, and a member of the board of arbitration.

HORSE RAN AWAY.

Sunday afternoon Henry Souza drove with his wife to the home of her father, Fred Baldwin, on Superior avenue, and while they were in the house the horse managed to break loose and started for his former home three miles northeast of the city to the residence of Alfred Souza, father of the owner of the horse. There the animal was found somewhat scratched and the buggy also damaged to some extent.

Mrs. Nola Marks and son who have been visiting in Greenville were in the city Monday returning to their home in Bluffs.

MONDAY IN CONGRESS.Senate.

Met at noon. Senator LaFollette introduced a resolution to prohibit the eastern railroads from putting in the increased freight rates recently authorized by the interstate commerce commission.

Secretary Garrison testified on the Philippines bill and hearings before the committee were closed.

Senator Ransdell advocated in open session prompt ratification of the pending Colombian treaty. Senator Shepard served notice he would propose a prohibition amendment to district of Columbia appropriation bill tomorrow. Adjourned at 5:46 p. m. until noon Tuesday.

House.

Leaders arranged for the vote on the woman's suffrage constitutional amendment tomorrow.

Representative Ansberry of Ohio resigned to become a justice of the state appellate court. Naval committee considered the naval bill.

Began consideration of river and harbor appropriation bill.

Representative Borland of Missouri made a speech supporting President Wilson in his differences with senators over federal appointments.

Bill introduced by Representative Gorman of Illinois to prohibit exportation of food stuffs when such exports would abnormally increase prices in the United States.

Resolution proposed by Representative Kane of California calling for information concerning Panama canal toll rates.

Passed bill prohibiting intermarriage of whites and negroes in the District of Columbia.

Adjourned at 5:53 p. m. to 11 a. m. Tuesday.

LARGE BUSINESS DONE AT LOCAL PACKING HOUSE.

Eight Hundred Hogs and Fifty Cattle Now Killed Weekly.

The Jacksonville Packing Company is busily engaged at present giving employment to about forty men. At the works they are killing some 800 hogs and fifty cattle a week. Pretty much all their hogs and most of their cattle are bought in this vicinity and at present, when shipping is restricted, they give a fine market for home growers of stock. They pay best market prices less freight and attract a great many animals from this vicinity. They pack most of the hogs though they have sent a number of car loads of dressed carcasses to New York, Pennsylvania and other eastern points.

The cattle go largely to dealers within a comparatively small radius who find it cheaper to buy carcasses than to kill. There are two government inspectors in the place all the time and examination is very rigid. The company is careful to buy healthy animals and is seldom deceived though it will happen sometimes in spite of the most careful scrutiny at the time of purchase, but the animals never get by the inspectors nor does the company want them to do so. Sometimes a carcass that will seem wholly safe and all right to an ordinary person will be found diseased and sent to the rendering tank.

PARDON MAY BE ISSUED TO DETROIT MAN

Escaped Years Ago from a Reformatory and Has Since Lead Exemplary Life.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 11.—The pardon board of the State of Minnesota is expected to issue a full pardon today to Albert Dawson Barrett of Detroit, who years ago escaped from the Minnesota State Reformatory, has lived an exemplary life ever since, has married a prominent girl in Detroit and has a bouncing baby.

The friends of Barrett in Detroit hail him as a Jean Valjean, and it was through the intercession of these powerful friends that Governor Eberhardt last November caused a stay of extradition proceedings to bring him back to answer to the law.

The case of Barrett is one of the first to come before the new governor, Winfield S. Hammond, who, with Chief Justice Calvin S. Brown and Attorney General Lyndon A. Smith, acts as the pardon board. Many personal tales from ministers and prominent men of Detroit have been received, telling of Barrett's present high character and of his attempt to live down the past. The newspapers have taken up the appeal, and point out the injustice of reimprisoning the young man. The women of St. Paul have petitioned for a full pardon for Barrett, and will send a delegation before the Board if necessary.

OHIO INAUGURATES NEW GOVERNOR

Columbus, O., Jan. 11.—Following a big parade of military and civic bodies of the state, the inauguration of Frank B. Lausche, Willis as Governor of Ohio took place today. The parade was the one public event of the day, for the inaugural ball was omitted, at the request of the new Governor, who seeks to do away with pomp and ceremony in public events.

General John C. Speaks was Marshall of the parade which started at 1 o'clock this afternoon. On stand erected on the north side of Capital Square were the new Governor and members of his official family. The inauguration ceremony was attended by notables of the state and federal government. The governor, who recently resigned his seat in Congress, has prepared a strong inaugural message, with many recommendations that he has gathered in his long experience in public life.

MERCHANTS AT SCHOOL.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Jan. 11.—This is "school week" in Oklahoma for the merchants, who are attending lectures, beginning this morning, on commerce and industry at the University of Oklahoma. Speakers of ability have been secured from many sections and many lines of activity. Paul H. Newstrom, of the University of Wisconsin, George J. Cowan of Chicago and other experts are among them. A joint conference of the merchants will take place here.

STARTING AFRESH

This year I've cut out the sins that handicapped me in the past; I realize that Virtue wins—the joys of Error do not last. I hope to be so truly good, so steadfast in the cause of right, that to the whole blamed neighborhood I will become a shining light. Admiring folks will to me point, and say, in fervent tones, "By Jings, if justice were not out of joint, he'd have a harp and set of wings." But I would hate to be so good, in righteousness so nobly strong, so clean and spotless that I could not sympathize with those gone wrong. I'd hate to walk so high a plane I could not feel for Jim or John, or try to shoo away their pain because their folly brought it on. I'd hate to reach those heights sublime where men are ever roasting sin, and when they land a tramp a dame, must throw a moral lecture in. I'll be as good as I know how, and still be human, like the rest; and if I break my New Year vow you all will know I've done my best.

EUROPEAN WAR NOTES

New York, Jan. 11.—The provisional executive committee for General Zionist affairs made public tonight a letter from his agent, Wold Gluskin, who is now in Alexandria, dated Dec. 4th, in which he says: "Conditions in Palestine are becoming worse every day. Palestine is facing a famine, a real famine in the fullest sense of the word. Is it possible that the population of the entire country will be left to starve? Permission to remove gold from here to Palestine is not so easily obtained but thanks to the efforts of Ambassador Morgenthau, the local authorities are favorably inclined."

The American Jewish Relief committee has under way arrangements for sending foodstuffs to Palestine, it was announced.

Petrograd, Jan. 11.—The following official communication was issued tonight from general headquarters:

"On the left bank of the Vistula both day and night, January 10th, the Germans attempted without success to attack our line at several points but were repulsed everywhere by our fire."

"In an attack in the region of the village of Samy, east of Skiernewice, the Germans reached our barbed wire entanglements and began to shout, 'no not fire, we are yours.'"

"However, as similar stratagems had been employed before the vigilance of our troops was not deceived by this maneuver of the Germans and we directed against them a destructive fire and delivered a counter-attack, repulsing the enemy and inflicting heavy losses upon them. In Galicia the cannon and rifle fire has been kept going and we remain in contact with the enemy."

Paris, Jan. 11.—(6:30 p. m.)—Two German aeroplanes heading for Paris were sighted yesterday by French air patrols who now cruise over a region considerably to the north of Paris. One of the German machines was near Pontoise and the other was sighted over LaMartin. Both turned northward again when they saw French aeroplanes driving in their direction.

The presence of the hostile aeroplanes in this vicinity yesterday is regarded as interesting as it is considered likely that it was the intention of the German airmen to attack Paris and London simultaneously.

London, Jan. 11.—(8:20 p. m.)—Italian troops arrived at Pireus on the way to the Italian islands in the Aegean Archipelago according to a despatch from Athens to Reuters' Telegram company. The soldiers, the message adds, will be apportioned among the garrisons on the various islands which are being strongly fortified.

London, Jan. 11.—(8:45 p. m.)—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Berlin by way of Amsterdam says the court of the appeals, has commuted the death sentence on private William Lonsdale, the English soldier who was court-martialed for attacking one of his guards at the Doberitz detention camp, to twenty years imprisonment.

Paris, Jan. 11.—(10:40 p. m.)—The following official communication was issued tonight: "There is no change in the situation to be chronicled."

Berlin, by wireless to Sayville, L. I.—The following statement was given out today by the Official Press Bureau:

"Vienna reports state that it has been ascertained that the French dreadnought Courbet was hit by the Austrian submarine No. 12. The Courbet was rammed by her sister ship, the Jean Bart, which was attempting to tow her."

The Courbet sank. The Jean Bart docked at Malta. "The French pretend that the Jean Bart was slightly hurt, concealing the loss of the Courbet."

An official telegram from Vienna on December 24th, said that submarine No. 12 had attacked on Dec. 21st, a French squadron composed of sixteen ships. The submarine torpedoed two battleships of the Courbet type, it was said, but owing to the high seas was unable to ascertain the fate of the torpedoed ships. The Courbet was 23,467 tons displacement and was armed with twelve 12-inch guns, twenty-two 5.12 inch guns and four 3 pounders. She was built in 1911 and carried a complement of 904 men.

FLORIDA LABOR

Sanford, Fla., Jan. 11.—The Florida State Federation of Labor, which met here today for its annual convention, is considering important legislation that will be urged on the next legislature, looking for better laws for working men and women.

MAY GET SUFFRAGE

Washington, Jan. 11.—Representative Henry, chairman of the House Rules Committee, is planning to put before Congress tomorrow the proposed suffrage constitutional amendment, for limited debate, and a vote. Suffrage leaders are here in force expecting to witness a victory for their cause.

WILL MEET WEDNESDAY. The thirteenth annual meeting of the Pastor's Aid society of Grace church will be held Wednesday evening in the Sunday school rooms at the church. A social hour will follow the program. All members of the church and congregation are cordially invited to attend.

BRITISH READ AMERICAN COMMENT WITH INTEREST

Officials Express Much Pleasure at Repeated Evidences of Friendly Spirit in Negotiations.

London, Jan. 11.—(7:05 p. m.)—American comment on the British preliminary reply to President Wilson's protest against the detention of American shipping by British warships, was read with great interest by British officials who today expressed much pleasure at the repeated evidences of the friendly spirit with which the negotiations are proceeding.

The British foreign office, it was pointed by officials there, never maintained that the partial statistics concerning American trade with European neutrals were conclusive but on the other hand that they were merely suggested.

Great Britain, one prominent official said, fully realized that Germany made heavy purchases of copper and other metals useful in war from her European neighbors preceding hostilities and that consequently a large supply of copper is required by these neutrals for domestic use. Cases have been established, it is added, however, where copper has been imported from America and then forwarded to Germany which makes caution on the part of Great Britain necessary. A large shipment of crude rubber for the United States will be released soon under an agreement reached by the British government and American manufacturers, the products from which material are not to be shipped to any part where they may reach Great Britain's enemies.

RITCHIE TO MEET WELSH.

San Francisco, Jan. 11.—Willie Ritchie, former light weight champion, accepted an offer here today to meet the title-holder, Freddie Welsh, in a ten round no-decision bout at Madison Square Garden on or about Feb. 9th. Ritchie said he would enter the ring at catch weights. He refused to make weight for a bout of less than twenty rounds in which the title was not at stake, except by the chance of a knockout.

TO GIVE REPORT TODAY.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 11.—An executive session of the committee on rules and dates of the Grand Circuit stewards was held here this afternoon. The committee's report will be presented to the annual meeting of the stewards of the harness racing circuit, which will take place here tomorrow. Horsemen from various cities of the United States and Canada participated in an annual banquet at a local hotel tonight.

WILL NOT HOLD RACE.

London, Jan. 11.—(8:00 p. m.)—On account of war conditions it was decided officially today that the historic Oxford-Cambridge boat race should not be held this year.

EGAN DENIES SIGNING.

Providence, R. I., Jan. 11.—Jack Egan, an American League umpire, said today that he had not signed with the Federal League for the coming season as had been reported in Chicago.

BOARD NEARLY COMPLETES REVISION OF REGULATIONS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The federal reserve board has almost completed its revision of the regulations designed to bring in all possible information concerning borrowers whose commercial paper comes up for re-discount to a federal reserve bank.

The first regulations were sweeping in character and were promulgated shortly after they were promulgated. The board is still of the opinion that detailed information should be gained to show the standing of borrowers so that a central credit bureau may be established in Washington with complete data for all parts of the country. This will be done, however, with as little inconvenience as possible to banks and borrowers.

FRUIT PROSPECTS.

So far the prospects for apples the present year are good though, of course, it is rather soon to predict. The severe weather thus far doesn't seem to have killed the buds and a good crop is hoped for. Intelligent care will well repay one even in this county which is, not considered an apple district, though men who have trimmed, sprayed and cultivated have raised excellent crops right along.

VACCINATE CAR SHOP WORKERS.

Galesburg, Ill., Jan. 11.—As a result of the discovery of two cases of smallpox among the employees of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road today, 350 shop and yard workers were vaccinated within a few hours. It is expected the vaccination order will be extended to include the entire Galesburg division.

SAYS SULPHUR DRIVES

ECZEMA FROM THE SKIN

Use Like Cold Cream to Stop Itching and Clear the Skin.

Sulphur, says a renowned dermatologist, just common bold-sulphur made into a thick cream will soothe and heal the skin when irritated and broken out with eczema or any form of eruption. The moment it is applied all itching ceases and after two or three applications the eczema disappears, leaving the skin clear and smooth.

He tells eczema sufferers to get from any good pharmacy an ounce of bold-sulphur and apply it to the irritated part the same as you would any cold cream.

For many years common bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position in the practice of dermatology and cutaneous affections by reason of its parasite-destroying property. It is not only parasiticide, but also antipruritic, antiseptic and remarkably healing in all irritable and inflammatory conditions of the skin. While not always effecting a permanent cure it never fails to instantly subdue the angry itching and irritation and heal the eczema right up and it is often years later before any eruption again appears on the skin.—Advertisement.

AN EASY WAY TO END CATARRH FOREVER

Simple Home Treatment Destroys Germs of This Dangerous Disease.

The reason why so many people who suffer from catarrh never seem able to get cured is that they are continually seeking the momentary relief of sprays, douching, greasy creams, ointments, etc. Such things do open up the swollen nostrils and clear the head temporarily by stepping for a while the disgusting blowing, hawking, spitting and choking but they never cure. To drive out catarrh for good you have got to get down to its real cause. Catarrh is a germ disease. The air is always full of catarrh germs thrown off by one person and absorbed by another and when the system does fail to throw off such germs they find permanent lodgment in the nose, throat and head and multiply rapidly.

The germs of catarrh can best be destroyed by inhaling the pure medicated air of Hyomel (pronounced Hy-o-mel). This splendid and powerful combination of oil of Eucalyptus with other healing agents has a wonderful germicidal action. You breathe its air into your nose, throat and lungs by means of a small hard rubber inhaler which Coover & Shreve and other leading druggists in this vicinity supply with every complete treatment. This medicated air is certain death to the germs of catarrh and drives them completely out of your system and when the germs are destroyed the catarrh with all its disagreeable symptoms will stop. Even two or three minutes use will give refreshing relief while if you use it two or three times a day for a few weeks it will completely banish catarrh and every symptom of catarrh. As Hyomel is pleasant to breathe and is always sold by druggists everywhere with a positive guarantee of successful results or money back, surely no catarrhal sufferer should go long before trying this simple home remedy. Ah! Pain is gone! Quickly?—Yes. Almost instant relief from soreness, stiffness, lameness and pain follows a gentle rubbing with "St. Jacobs Oil." Rub this soothing, penetrating oil right on your painful back, and like magic relief comes. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless backache, lumbago and rheumatic cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. Straighten up! Quit complaining! Stop those "dreadful" "itches." In a moment you will forget that you ever had a weak back, because it won't hurt or be stiff or lame. Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from your druggist now and get this lasting relief.—Advertisement.

STRAIGHT FORWARD TESTIMONY

Many Jacksonville Citizens Have Profited By It.

If you have backache, urinary troubles, days of dizziness, headaches or nervousness, strike at the seat of the trouble. These are often the symptoms of weak kidneys and there is grave danger in delay. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney ailments—are endorsed by over 300,000 people. Your neighbors recommend this remedy—have proved its merit in many tests. Jacksonville readers should take fresh courage in the straightforward testimony of a Jacksonville citizen.

J. B. Seaver, blacksmith, 346 E. North street, Jacksonville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with fine results and I am pleased to recommend them. I had pains in the small of my back especially when I tried to straighten after stooping. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they stopped the pains. They also regulated the action of my kidneys."

FOR THOSE WHO FEED THE BIRDS

A timely article "Feeding Wild Birds by Simple Methods" appeared in the Outlook by Ernest Harold Baynes. It contains a number of most helpful suggestions and ideas and ought to be of benefit to Journal readers. In part Mr. Baynes says:

For Insect Eaters.

"We may begin by putting out some suet for the insectivorous birds. I believe in having rather large pieces, weighing say, about a pound each, at a few principal points, and a number of smaller pieces scattered more widely in order to attract the attention of as many birds as possible and get them to take larger lumps. Let us look out of the window and see if we can find a tree, say seventy-five or a hundred feet away, to which we can tie one of our larger lumps of suet.

Suet in a Tree.

"Let us suppose that we can see such a tree and there is a well exposed branch from eight to twelve feet above the ground. Perhaps we can easily climb to the branch but if we cannot we can get a ladder. We should have three or four pieces of soft string of convenient length and with one of these tie the suet at just the place and in just the position that we want it. It is well to have it on top of the branch or at the side of it. If fastened underneath certain birds which like suet would have difficulty in getting at it. If it is fastened on one side of the branch, of course it should be on the side nearest the house where it can be seen.

To Checkmate Squirrels.

"The other pieces of string are crisscrossed back and forth and should bite into the suet a little at every turn so that it may be left snug and tight. The object of having several strings is to prevent squirrels from detaching the suet by simply cutting one string with its teeth. The loose ends of the strings may be cut off and the feeding station is complete.

"Now let us go to a tree say ten or twenty feet from the window and there we will tie a second piece of suet at a point a little higher than the window itself. The third piece we will tie either to the window sill or to a stick or board fastened to the window sill. These three we will call our main suet stations. Smaller pieces we will tie in trees and shrubs out in all directions from the house and farther away from it. These distant ones will probably be visited first, and as the birds gain confidence they will approach nearer and nearer until they come to the window itself.

Birds Eating Suet.

"I give the following list of twenty-one kinds of birds that have come to feed at windows in the village of Meriden, N. H., where we have been feeding for the last three years.

"Hairy woodpecker, downy woodpecker, ruby-throated hummingbird, blue jay, pine grosbeak, purple finch, white-winged crossbill, redpoll, pine siskin, vesper sparrow, white-crowned sparrow, white-throated sparrow, tree sparrow, slumping sparrow, junco, song sparrow, myrtle warbler, winter wren, white-breasted nuthatch, red-breasted nuthatch, chickadee, Hudsonian chickadee. This is probably the largest list for any town or village.

The red-bellied woodpecker, snow hunting and fox sparrow, brown creeper and hermit thrush have also been known to feed at the windows of houses, but they have never done so in Meriden.

Easy Way to Do It.

"If it becomes necessary to put out more suet during the intensely cold weather we shall find it a good plan to bring some short branches into the house and tie the suet there in comfort. Then if we drive a couple of short nails part way through the branch we can carry it out and quickly nail to any tree we like. If we wish to go to just a little more trouble we can make suet pockets of half inch wire netting and staple them to the trees instead of tying the suet itself to the branches.

Seed Eaters.

"The simplest way of feeding the seed eating birds is to scatter the food on the ground. If there is soft, deep snow the food should not be thrown upon it. Seed and most other foods quickly sink into soft snow, and besides most birds do not like to flounder about in snow drifts in order to get a bite to eat.

The snow may be swept or shoveled away, but personally I prefer to trample it down. The tramping process is quicker, much quicker and it makes no unsightly patches. Moreover, the well trodden snow makes a most pleasing background against which to see our feathered guests.

"It is best to put one day's supply of food out in the morning. The birds learn to connect our appearance with the coming of good things for them and quickly lose all fear of us. Moreover, by putting out comparatively small quantities of food we avoid waste when snow storms come and cover up whatever is on the ground.

Various Foods.

"The following are some of the best foods and the birds that have been known to eat them:

"Suet. Screech owl, hairy woodpecker, downy woodpecker, red-bellied woodpecker, flicker, blue jay, crow, Clark's nutcracker, starling, tree sparrow, junco, red-breasted grosbeak, myrtle warbler, brown creeper, white-breasted nuthatch, red-breasted nuthatch, chickadee, Hudsonian chickadee, hermit thrush. "Fat pork. Hairy woodpecker, downy woodpecker, blue jay, crow, white-breasted nuthatch, tufted titmouse, chickadee.

"Raw meat. Screech owl, hairy woodpecker, downy woodpecker, blue jay, white-breasted nuthatch, chickadee.

"Hemp seed. Pine grosbeak, purple finch, redpoll, gold finch, pine siskin, vesper sparrow, white-throated sparrow, junco, song sparrow, white-breasted nuthatch, chickadee.

"Millet seed. Purple finch, redpoll, goldfinch, pine siskin, vesper sparrow, white-throated sparrow, tree sparrow, chipping sparrow, junco, song sparrow, fox sparrow.

"Cracked corn. Shore lark, blue jay, tree sparrow, junco, cardinal, grosbeak, white-breasted nuthatch.

"Bread crumbs. Blue jay, crow, tree sparrow, white-breasted sparrow, junco, brown creeper chickadee. "Other foods of which the birds are fond are dog biscuit crumbs, sunflower seeds, chaff, oats, whole corn, canary seed, doughnut crumbs, wheat, broken squash seed, salt, salt water and mud impregnated with salt.

Rewards of Patience.

"To those who have a little patience some of the most delightful experiences will come from having birds so fearless that they will alight on the hand or shoulder or permit one to pick them up. To those who have had no experience in feeding wild birds I will say that it is simply a matter of being very quiet and gentle with your feathered guests, of being patient with them and of using a little thought and ingenuity. At least eleven species of our winter birds have been known to feed from the hand."

PAID TO GET THE GOODS.

Consequently He Felt That They Were His by Right.

A claim once made on the explorer Cameron in the neighborhood of Gaboon, Africa, shows the weirdly peculiar workings of the native African's mind. Some of Cameron's possessions proved unduly attractive to a native, and he determined on transferring the ownership to himself. He accordingly paid another native $200 to procure for him the coveted goods.

The assistant took the money and did his best to earn it, but Mr. Cameron had perversely looked up the very articles that the fellow's employer had set his heart upon. The man could not carry out his bargain, and neither did he feel that he could part with the money. Therefore he ran off with it.

What more logical than that the man who was the loser by $200 should expect the explorer to make the loss good? This he assuredly did expect.

He went to Mr. Cameron and told him the story, demanding in the first place the $200 which he (Cameron) by locking up his goods had compelled the complainant to lose and, secondly, the actual price of the goods themselves, which but for these arbitrary measures would now have been in his possession. It is not stated that his expectations were realized.—London Spectator.

EARLY BANK RUNS.

The Dutch Fleet in the Thames Started One in London in 1669.

The first run of which we have any account in the history of banking occurred in the year 1667. It was quickly stopped. At that date the bankers of England were the goldsmiths, who had a short time before begun to add banking to their ordinary business and had become very numerous and influential.

In 1669 the Dutch fleet sailed up the Thames, blew up the fort at Sheerness, set fire to Chatham and burned some ships of the line. This created the greatest consternation in London, especially among those who had entrusted their money to the bankers, for it was known that the latter had advanced large sums to the king for public purposes, and it was rumored that now the king would not be able to pay the money. To quell the panic a royal proclamation was issued to the effect that payments by the exchequer to the bankers would be made, as usual.

In 1671 there was another run on the London banks, when Charles II. shut up the exchequer and refused to pay the bankers either principal or interest of the money which they had advanced. On this occasion many of the banks and their customers were ruined.—London Standard.

Ten Stick Island.

In the Southwest bay, in the New Hebrides group, there is a small wooded island of considerable height above the sea, although only a few hundred yards in circumference. The story of its acquisition is a curious one. Southwest bay used to be considered a good place for target practice by the British men of war on patrol duty there, and this small inlet was used as a target so frequently that it seemed in danger of being gradually shot away. The chief who owned it protested and wanted compensation. The captain of a man-of-war who understood the natives knew that these claims would be a ceaseless source of blackmail unless they were settled once for all, so he bought the island for the British crown, paying ten sticks of tobacco for it, and every one was satisfied. The place since then has been known as "Ten Stick Island."—London Standard.

Isn't a Loaf Always Bread?

"How is Robert getting on at college?" asked the minister, who was being entertained at dinner.

"Splendidly," said the proud father, who then went on to tell of his son's various social, athletic and scholastic successes, and the minister said it was a fine thing to be college bred.

That evening little James, who had been an interested listener, said, "Papa, what did Mr. Brown mean by 'college bred'?"

UNITED STATES PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE.

Winter Flannels.

Our Colonial ancestors left us as a part of their domestic legacy many habits and some customs that have been cherished with filial piety for many generations, and we have come to regard them as a part of the unwritten laws of our existence. Among them might be mentioned some of the pernicious products of the kitchen, such as the hot "riz" biscuit washed down with ice water, and the hominy floated in hog's grease, while in the lesser atrocities may be classed pie for breakfast, fried meats and the concoction known in the restaurants as "stew and dump." So says Surgeon Banks of the United States Public Health Service. In a measure these are local punishments, for our stomachs being the first line of defense bear the brunt of the assault. Only the brace deserve that fare. But while these relate to the sustenance of man the patient descendants of our worthy forbears have carried a load of other customs none the less reprehensible because they seem to be practised with some semi-intelligent application. To be sure we continue to plug up our windows in winter, or double-sash them to prevent any ventilation, and then pile on the fuel till we reach 80 degrees triumphantly and sit and stew in that intemperate zone day after day, week after week, and month after month. We have come to regard that as a comfortably heated house, for winter, and yet when we get 80 degrees in summer, natural atmospheric heat in the shade, we puff and fume and mop our brows and call it a suffocatingly hot day. It took many generations of protesting victims to relegate the insanitary feather bed to its merited desuetude. Even now, in many of the remotest districts, this Lethalium of our sleep which almost swallows its victims in an amoeboid grasp may yet be found doing its lethal work on a generation that knows not its capacity for evil.

Even so we have become the legatees of our grandfathers in that isothermic obsession concerning "flannels," meaning underclothing in general, by which we delude ourselves that we are cheating the doctor and the undertaker. As a matter of comfort, cleanliness, convenience and cover we have come to wear in our civilized life a suit of clothing under our street apparel, and it is to this underclothing that we turn our attention in this brief essay in protest. Designed chiefly as an inner garment to hold the moisture and exfoliations of the skin, and of a texture suitable for constant laundering to ensure cleanliness, it has become the chief vehicle for many men's hygienic hallucinations. The large and increasing class who carry in their wardrobes several "seasonal" varieties of underclothing, alternating from the imperiously thick to the gauzy thin "flannels" is a source of wonder to that other class who wonder what it is all about. It cannot be said that it is the leisure-sated individuals who affect these varying degrees of light, medium and heavy underclothing and are prepared to confront any range of "weather" on the sliding scale basis, but the average man is so surfeited with his "flannel" fetish that he is a regularly consistent devotee of its false and fraudulent worship.

The idea is simple and the fall easy. He looks out of the window in the morning and finds the wind easterly and the sky cloudy. Pedestrians in the perspective have hands in their pockets, and the old faithful thermometer is consulted as the infallible underclothing gauge. It has fallen a few degrees since yesterday when he wore "light" weight, inference—"medium" weight for today, and "medium" it is. At noon, sun comes out, the wind shifts to southwest and a rising temperature begins to show considerable caloric units. Our brilliant hygienic expert begins to perspire and on the shady sides of the streets feels a chilly sensation. Now it is either one or the other to meet the situation, heavier flannels to counteract the chill, or lighter weight to check the perspiration. He toddles home, gets heated in the walk, becomes hotter in the house, and decides on light underclothing. Everything goes on comfortably until night, when there is a sudden change again, cold "norther" drops down, and the last shift of the day is made to the heavy weight, and our scientific dresser is satisfied that he has executed several successful flank movements on the weather. Next day or two he has a slight infectious "sore throat" or cold, as a result of over-heating and his "draft," and relates to his wondering friends how he got it—"made a mistake in not putting on my heavy weight earlier in the day." And he believes it—as the colder the day the thicker the merino, the warmer the day the thinner the flannel. Simple—and soberific.

This astute philosopher who spends his days in "fooling" the weather is simply fooling himself. Instead of attaining his end, the end attains him by any one of a dozen processes designed for the purpose of putting a period to outraged nature. Instead of dressing for indoors with his undergarments he has been dressing for outdoor temperatures and left himself a victim of his obsession when he comes again into the summer warmth of his house.

Dr. Banks says that those who do not do this and wear the same weight of underclothing the year round are simply allowing the skin to attend to its normal functions unhampered. They escape the penalties which nature metes out to

IS STILL OPEN FOR YOU TO JOIN

AND INTEREST ON YOUR DEPOSITS WILL ACCRUE FROM DATE CLUB STARTED.

The Dimes, Nickels and Pennies you allow to slip through your fingers for things of little use to you will keep up your payments. Do not postpone joining for soon it will be too late.

When we opened our new Bank Building two years ago, we started our first Club and in December of that year paid about Seven Thousand Dollars.

One year ago, our second Club was started, and the week before Christmas we paid out to our Club members nearly Twenty-five Thousand Dollars.

This Money Went Into the Channels of Trade

The members had funds for their Christmas shopping and merchants were benefitted because the members had money to spend. Those who have tried it, like it, and they say they are going to join again.

You ask them what they think of it and what they say is the strongest proof of its advantages we can offer you.

It ought to amount to Fifty Thousand Dollars this year, and we believe it will. Just think what that will mean to you Christmas week of this year.

Call and let Mr. J. J. Kelly, our Savings Teller, explain the plan to you.

Severe Blood Troubles Vanish

With Magic Effect, Great Remedy Makes Disease Disappear.

At almost any drug store you may obtain S. S. S., the famous blood purifier, and you then have the veritable wizard that makes all blood troubles vanish. Your stomach takes kindly to S. S. S., it rushes into your blood, is a purifying wave, makes the liver, kidneys, bladder and skin work in harmony; stops accumulations that have caused rheumatism, catarrh, swollen glands, sore throat and skin eruptions.

Just as food makes blood, so does S. S. S. follow the process of digestion to stimulate the natural secretions to protect us against the ravages of disease germs. We are well aware of the fact that these germs are apt to be latent within us, breaking forth in violent eruptions of the skin whenever the system is in a low state of resistance. And it is to both prevent these eruptions or to get rid of them that Nature gave us such an ally as S. S. S. It is purely vegetable, contains no mercury, and yet it overcomes those serious troubles for which mercury has been employed for ages. In every community are people who know this to be true. They owe to S. S. S. their recovery. Get a bottle today. Refuse all substitutes. Read the folder around the bottle that tells of the wonderful work being done by the medical department in eradicating users of S. S. S. GRANDMOTHER KNEW

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard-plaster burned and blistered while it acted. You can now get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister.

MUSTEROLE does it. It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It is scientifically prepared, so that it works wonders, and yet does not blister the tenderest skin.

Just massage MUSTEROLE in with the finger-tips gently. See how quickly it brings relief—how speedily the pain disappears.

And there is nothing like MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chills, Frosted Feet, Cough of the Chest (it often prevents Pneumonia).

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, you will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter that one's system collects.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dark eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women, as well as men, take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel—10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

DISTRICT FISH COMMISSIONER ADVOCATES NEW LEGISLATION

Declares That Unless Some Measures Are Taken For Fish Protection That Great Loss Will Be Sustained by the People of the State.

J. M. Entwistle, district fish commissioner, has recently written a letter in which he advocates legislation for the preservation of the fish of Illinois. He declares that the formation of levy districts has destroyed most of the natural spawning grounds for the fish and that something should be done to take the place of this land. This interesting statement of the situation from the commissioner's viewpoint was sent to Deputy Warden J. G. Dowell of Franklin and transmitted by him to the Journal.

Havana, Illinois, January, 9th.—Being in a position to observe, during the last twenty years, the rapid changes that are taking place in the fishing grounds along the Illinois River and being very much interested in the conserving of our fish, for the present as well as for the future generations, I am asking you to publish this letter, hoping that it will be the means of arousing the interest of the public so that we may be able to have some action taken by the Legislature this winter.

Fishing is not only a pastime and sport to nearly everyone but it is a means of livelihood to thousands of people in Illinois. How few realize that it is fast becoming only a memory. The great Illinois River, which has produced millions of pounds of fish annually, will soon be only a drainage canal inhabited by a few bullheads and the king of all sports "fishing" or rather bass-fishing with a fly rod will be only a memory.

If you are a sportsman, now is the time to get busy with the members of the Legislature, or if you are a commercial fisherman, you will organize and do something at this coming session of the Legislature, otherwise all sporting and commercial fishing will be a thing of the past. Also remember if you eat fish, and it is a cheap and wholesome food, you will be compelled to pay higher prices for inferior and imported fish, when our native fish are gone.

Fish Decrease in Numbers.

During the last twenty years the fish in the Illinois River have been decreasing very rapidly; different theories have been advanced for this decrease, some claim that it is on account of sewage polluting the river, which is true to a great extent, others claim that it is on account of the use of large seines during the hot weather months, this is also true and a great destroyer of fish; but the principal reason the fish in the Illinois River are on such a rapid decrease is the law of the State which makes it possible to destroy the breeding grounds. This law allows private parties to form drainage districts of the over-flowed lands on which are the natural spawning grounds.

During the last fifteen years thousands and thousands of acres of land which was once the home of the fish, have been leveed and only a few acres remain, comparatively, that are available for spawning and breeding grounds. Spring Lake, which is about 25 miles south of Peoria was one of the best fishing grounds of the State twenty years ago; now it is in a levee district and the fish have been destroyed. Dan Hole's Field, which is northwest of Havana about four miles, was considered by experts to be the best spawning ground in Illinois. This last year it was leveled and destroyed as a spawning ground. Big Lake, eighteen miles south of Havana has just been leveled. West Matanzas, in Fulton County, has just been put into a drainage district.

I understand from reliable sources that all over-flowed land from Clear Lake to Quiver Lake, a distance of about 15 miles to the east side of the river is ready to be put in a levee district and all the land from Liverpool south to Thompson Lake will soon be in a drainage district. Thompson and Flag Lakes are also to be put in drainage districts as soon as the suits pending are disposed of.

More Levee Districts Planned.

I merely mention these few drainage districts to show how the fish spawning places are being destroyed. Destroy the nest of any fish or bird and you soon exterminate them. Some people forget the sporting as well as commercial side of fishing and say the land is too valuable to lie idle and it must be put in corn and wheat but the argument lacks foundation. An acre of water will produce more when farmed with fish, than with either corn or wheat. In Germany they rent land for fish culture at so much per water acre per year and it pays big profits to both tenant and owner.

This State has taken an active interest in the fish and Game Conservation during the last two years but all efforts will be useless so far as the Illinois River is concerned, and this river produces more fish than all the rest of the rivers in the State put together, unless immediate action is taken by the Legislature to pass a law that will prevent any levying on the Illinois River. If they cannot pass such a law they should appropriate enough money to buy up 25,000 or 30,000 acres of the best breeding grounds left and hold them as a State Fish and Game Preserve, open to the public under certain restrictions.

Would Raise Fund.

The money thus appropriated would soon be returned to the state Treasury via $1 license for every one who fished with a fly rod or casting pole. You understand, that I don't mean to tax the kid who fishes with a worm, but tax the fly-caster, the Dogaigle thrower; they are the real sports and heretofore, as well as at present, they have had more to do with passing the laws relative to fishing than any one combination in the State. At the same time they have never paid one dollar into the State Treasury for their sport. I believe you will find every one of them will be glad of the opportunity and willing to pay one dollar license if they know that the money so raised will be used for the purchase of lands to protect and propagate the fish and create places where they can go any time during the season and enjoy a good day's fishing.

Several States have bought up land for hunting and fishing preserves. The United States has set aside thousands of acres for such purposes and there is no reason why Illinois, one of the richest fish producing states in the union, cannot do likewise and it can if you, as individuals, will take immediate action and tell your representative and Senator to vote for such a bill.

Under the State Law in effect, the State Game and Fish Conservation Commission has power to set aside public water as a State Fish Preserve and they have exercised that power extensively but the law does not give them the power to control private property, and unfortunately most of the spawning grounds along the Illinois River Valley are owned by private parties. These people will leave their lands unless they are purchased by the State. Our fish will then be gone and you will wake up some morning and ask your neighbor where you can go fishing and he will tell you to Canada or Florida or some other far away point. If you want to buy a mess of fish to take home you will pay a higher price for some stale fish shipped in from some other State. Not only that, but this State will lose one of the largest revenue producers it has.

Governor Dunne is very much interested in the conserving of both the fish and game. He is an expert fisherman and I know he would like to see the fish conserved. He has been fishing with me on several different occasions and I know his views on the subject.

Politics should not enter into this work. Everyone in the State owes it, not only to himself but to the future generations, to use all his efforts to have this session of the Legislature take some positive action to protect our fish.

If these grounds are bought up by the State as I have suggested they would also be a great benefit to the hunter. As it is now, the majority of the best hunting grounds are owned by Clubs, maintained as private preserves and unless you are fortunate enough to be a member of some one of these Clubs you will find it hard work to locate a place where you can get any shooting without trespassing on some private land. If the State buys up a lot of this over-flowed land the public would have a hunting ground as well as a place to fish.

Most of the revenue paid into the State Game and Fish Department comes from the dollar license of the hunter. Last year $150,000 was paid the State Treasury for hunting licenses. An increase of at least $100,000 per year would be made in licenses if the State owned 30,000 acres of public hunting and fishing preserves.

Now is the time to act—two years from now will be too late—so put the proposition up to your Senator or Representative with instructions to throw politics aside for once and save the spawning and resting grounds for the Fish and Game.

J. W. Entwistle, District Warden.

COUNCIL HAS LIST OF WOMEN FOR ELECTION OFFICIALS

Suggestions Made by the Civic League—Appropriate Ordinance to be Considered Today.

The Monday session of the city council was brief, and little business of importance was transacted. When the council adjourned, however, it was until Tuesday morning at ten o'clock, when the appropriation ordinance will be given a second reading. A committee from the Civic League was present and presented a list of women whom the league believes will be willing and fit to serve as judges and clerks in the coming election. Mrs. J. H. Damskin presented the list on behalf of the league and subsequently there was considerable discussion with reference to it.

After the usual formalities of roll call and reading of the minutes, a communication was read from George Smith of the fourth ward, in which he took to task the ministers of the city with reference to their attitude on the Sunday concerts by the Jeffries band. This communication was received and placed on file. Commissioner Engel announced the appointment of C. M. Sharpe as patrolman in place of Charles Arenz, resigned, and this appointment was confirmed. A letter was received from O. A. Reed of Fairbanks Morse & Co., expressing his appreciation for the resolution of thanks and commendation recently passed by the council and the hope that he might some time be of further service to the city.

The report of Miss Emma Weller, city matron, was received and placed on file. Miss Weller told of the case of a five-month old child which had been practically abandoned by its parents and which she had placed in a home. Mention was made of four mothers she had visited to investigate complaints and of five boys and one girl whose cases had been taken before the juvenile court.

The presentation of the list of judges by the Civic League committee called for a good deal of discussion, especially after a motion made by Mr. Newman that the request of the civic league be concurred in. Mayor Davis did not think such a motion necessary as he said that the council had in the past already indicated its willingness to appoint women as election officials. Mr. Engel and Mr. Knollenberg said that they had no objections at all to the list, but had made individual promises in several instances and were not in a position, therefore, to agree that the entire list as suggested should be appointed. Mr. Brennan expressed himself along the same line. Afterward Mrs. Damskin explained further the attitude of the league on the subject and said that it was not the desire of the league at all to dictate as to who should be appointed, but that they had compiled a list after a great deal of thought, and simply suggested the names of persons they considered competent for the service and that all that they asked was that the council in making the appointments take into consideration the suggested list.

This view of the matter accorded satisfactorily with the wishes of the council, and this course will be followed when the election ordinance is drafted. The list of names and the districts they represent, filed with the council, is as follows:

District No. 1.—Mrs. N. M. Schell, 1012 Mathers street.

CHARGE ENGLAND WITH CAUSING MONOPOLY ON WHEAT IMPORTS

Berlin Official Press Bureau Gives Out Statement—Denmark to Retain Its Trade with Germany.

Berlin, Jan. 11.—By wireless to Sayville.—The Official Press Bureau today gave out the following for publication:

"The action of the Swiss government in monopolizing the importation of wheat during the war was due to difficulties raised by England."

"The Berne Bund states that the supply of wheat in Switzerland is sufficient for only twenty three days. A well known Swiss architect, after a trip through Belgium says in the Neue Zürcher Zeitung that the Germans have destroyed no historical works in Belgium."

"A Copenhagen despatch says that Sir George Buchanan, British ambassador to Russia, has protested against the allegation that Russia is bearing all the burdens of the war and that the English selfishly are awaiting the conclusion of the war to get the lion's share of the spoils. The ambassador points out that this reproach was made openly in the leading Russian newspapers."

"Russian police searched the home of the 70 year old widow of the famous author Count Tolstol. No revolutionary documents were found but meanwhile part of the house was destroyed by fire."

The Danish prime minister, C. Th. Zahle in an interview in the National Tidende of Copenhagen, stated that Denmark would maintain its trade with Germany in the interests of Denmark and that rumors concerning German misdeeds in Danish territory henceforth would be investigated and that those who invented and spread them would be punished.

"The reason for the withdrawal of Russian guards from the Warsaw battle front according to reports from Sophia was not the granting of a furlough to the troops, as was reported semi-officially, but was the necessity of protecting Petrograd from threatened riots."

"Herbert C. Hoover, chairman of the American relief committee for Belgium, acknowledges the active support which the committee has received from German officers and soldiers who assisted in the distribution of food. The German military authorities carried out measures agreed upon with the committee."

"Official statistics for November and December show that 6,660,000 marks ($1,665,000) in twenty mark gold pieces were coined in that time. The Berlin Savings Bank in the first six days of 1915 received deposits of 3,000,000 marks in excess of those during the same period last year."

"The German war loan is now quoted at more than two percent above the issue price. Pig-iron production in the upper Silesian district amounted to 853,957 tons in 1914 as against 994,624 tons in 1913."

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee", at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.—Advertisement.

MRS. BECRAFT RESCUED FROM DEPTHS OF A CISTERN

Woman Jumped Into Water at Early Hour Sunday Morning—Shrieks Brought Aid.

About 3:30 Sunday morning residents near the corner of Prairie street and Lafayette avenue were awakened by the shrieks of a woman, and investigation resulted in disclosing that Mrs. Cora Becraft of 532 West Lafayette avenue had either fallen or jumped into a cistern. Charles Sharp and Cornelius Harrigan, who live nearby, were awakened by the woman's cries and hastened to the Becraft home, found that the woman was in the cistern, standing with the water almost up to her shoulders. A candle was quickly procured and a rope lowered, and as she held it Mrs. Becraft was safely raised to the surface. She was carried to the home of Mr. Harrigan nearby and the shock had been such that she quickly became unconscious.

Dr. T. O. Hardesty was summoned and gave the necessary attention and an hour later Mrs. Becraft regained consciousness and was taken to Passavant hospital. Sunday afternoon she improved and yesterday she was able to be removed to her home. Mrs. Becraft was clad only in a night dress when she was raised from the cistern, but her heavy cloak was lying on the ground near the cistern top, and indicated that she had worn it from the house when she went to the cistern. The first belief was that she had made an attempt at suicide, but if this had been true the neighbors were unable to understand why she should have cried out for assistance and aided her own rescue by clinging firmly to the rope.

WITH THE SICK.

Benjamin Pyatt was able to be out yesterday after an illness of some duration. He is yet weak but is recovering.

Mrs. George Brown of East College avenue has gone to Chicago to be at the bedside of her granddaughter, the little child of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scott.

Mrs. E. Waters, wife of Dr. Charles E. Waters of Murrayville is reported very ill.

Father Henley of Murrayville, who has been ill for several days is reported better.

Charles Henry of Woodson has been indisposed for several days.

The venerable John Sheppard of Woodson is reported ill. He has been confined close to his room since last fall.

Mary Kliner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kliner, is ill.

Mrs. Edward Blackburn of the Ebenezer neighborhood who has been ill for several days shows slight improvement.

Ms. Malinda Smart of Crackers Bend has been ill for several days.

Mrs. G. W. Sargent of South East street, who has been seriously ill is slightly improved.

Miss Georgie Melton has resumed her duties in the office of Wiswell and Son, after an illness at her home on North Church street.

Noting, the two months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jones, 319 West College street, is critically ill.

Miss Hazel Wight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Wight, 345 North West street, fell recently injuring her knee severely and is unable to walk.

Leo Kaul is confined to his home on Sheridan street by a severe illness.

George Vedder of South East street is ill with tonsillitis and laryngitis.

Lance Waterfield, who has been confined to his home for the past week with tonsillitis, is now slowly improving.

FRANKLIN RESIDENTS ARE SOON TO HAVE ELECTRIC LIGHTS

Engine of Fifty Horse-power Installed—Charles Olinger Behind Protest.

The town of Franklin will soon be lighted by electricity, as the project under the management of Charles Olinger is almost complete. The citizens are promised that the lights will be flowing by the first of February. Electric lights for the streets and common consumption has long been the dream of the people of the place. Mr. Olinger for some time has had a twenty-five horse-power engine, by which he has been furnished current for the opera house, M. E. church, Smith and Ralston store, barber shop, Dr. Elder's office, moving picture place and his own store.

The building erected for housing the engine is 40 by 20 feet. The power will be generated by a Bessemer gas engine of fifty horse power. The city has contracted to use on the streets, thirty-three lights, and will pay $22.00 a light per year. Stores and private homes will be charged at the rate of 10c per kilowatt hour. A large number of residences and stores have contracted for lights and it is expected that more will follow after the installation is complete.

Mr. Olinger has a storage tank which will hold 8,000 gallons of explosive crude oil, and the oil has already been ordered from the Standard Oil company.

FUNERALS

ILL.

The funeral of Mrs. Bertha Lee Hill was held at the residence, 731 North Main street, Monday afternoon at two o'clock.

The Rev. Percy Stephens, pastor of the First Baptist church had charge of the services. Misses Cecil Fanning and Thelma Corbridge had charge of the many flowers. Appropriate music was furnished for the occasion by Miss Cecil Fanning, Mrs. Sheppard, Evelyn Draper and W. W. Gillham.

The bearers were John, William, Benjamin and Albert Prewitt. Interment was made in East cemetery.

Summers.

The funeral of Mrs. James M. Summers was held at the residence, 534 South East street, Sunday afternoon, Rev. Percy Stephens, pastor of the First Baptist church being in charge of the services.

Music for the occasion was furnished by Miss Sanberg, Mrs. Richardson and Messrs. Schofield and Gillham.

Those who cared for the many beautiful flowers were Mrs. B. J. Miller, Mrs. D. T. Meinlich, Mrs. J. B. Surier and Mrs. Lee Shaven.

The bearers were A. P. Jolly, Newton Shelton, W. E. McCurley, Joseph Ludwig, B. J. Holkenbrink and C. H. Story.

Obituary.

Lucinda Henry Summers, the subject of this sketch, was the third daughter of Elijah and Margaret Henry. She was born June 6, 1849, at the old Henry homestead, five miles southeast of Woodson, Ill., and spent nearly all of her life in Morgan county.

She was married Nov. 4, 1866, to James M. Summers of her old neighborhood. To this union were born seven children, viz: James Ross, who died in infancy; Rosetta, who became the wife of Benjamin Holkenbrink, died in 1905; Mrs. Amanda Jolly of Franklin, Ill.; Mrs. Mary Shelton of North Dakota; Mrs. W. E. McCurley and Harry H. of Jacksonville, with the husband survive.

She was converted to the Christian religion in August, 1866, in a meeting conducted by Elders William P. Hart and Frank Nichols, at the Youngblood Baptist church, with which church she united, and where she lived a consistent Christian life until twenty years ago, when the family moved to Jacksonville, where she united with the First Baptist church, from which she was called to her eternal home at 2 p. m. Friday, Jan. 8, 1915.

Being a child of Christian parents of sturdy faith and strong convictions, she was early impressed with the need of her soul's salvation and gave her life to the service of the Master, when she was 17 years of age.

As a Christian she was meek and humble in spirit and distinctly opposed to any affection of pomp or display, and enjoyed best the old style of worship, to such as she was accustomed in her childhood and especially did she enjoy the annual church associations.

In her own simple, innocent way she lived a daily life that was above reproach, and to know her was to know that she had been with Jesus and learned of Him.

She was a faithful, patient wife, a kind hearted, affectionate mother, and a friend of the needy and unfortunate.

The closing days of her life were especially blessed in that she was given glorious visions of her Savior and heavenly splendor such as none but she could describe, and amidst her suffering she shouted the praises of God for His goodness.

Quietly the end came at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. McCurley, and the liberated soul soared away in the company of heavenly messengers, to be forever with the Redeemer she loved, and who had died for her redemption.

Friend.

C. P. & S. L. BUILDS DEPOT.

Havana is rejoicing in the construction of a new depot by the C. P. & S. L. railroad. The old station, it seems, had long been in different repair and after a season of activity on the part of the Havana commercial organization, the railroad took steps toward the new enterprise, which promises to be a credit to the city. The depot under construction will have a sheltered platform of concrete, good luncheon facilities, and improvements in keeping with the modern plan of work.

"REBEKAH" DR. POST'S THEME AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Sunday evening at the Congregational church, Rev. R. O. Post, D. D., delivered a peculiarly beautiful and impressive discourse, his theme being "The Story of Rebekah."

Generally the book of Ruth has held first place in sacred literature as a beautiful specimen of pastoral composition, and as for that matter it has held first place in all literature in that direction but Dr. Post said it was surely rivaled by the XXIVth chapter of Genesis which tells the story of Rebekah.

The speaker depicted the scene, Abraham about to leave this world while his faithful head servant, Eliezer, was at his side receiving the dying injunction of his master to be sure to secure for Isaac a wife, not from among the Canaanites about them but to go to Mesopotamia the land from which the patriarch came and there secure for the heir a wife from among his own kind. The journey of 500 miles was depicted and most beautifully the scene at the well when the servant asked of the Lord to guide him and prove to him that the mission was to be successful if the first maiden who came to draw water would give him a drink and offer to water the camels also.

Abraham was a man of faith, Isaac one of thoughtful meditation and Jacob a person shrewd in business yet before he died honestly following the Lord, all making a combination for the ancestry of a mighty nation which has held its own throughout the centuries in spite of oppression and obloquy, persecution of all kinds and ostracism.

MRS. CARRIEL IMPROVING.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roberts, son and daughter, were at Oak Lawn Sunday to visit Mrs. Mary T. Carriel, who is a patient there. Mrs. Carriel went to the sanatorium for treatment and is now able to walk about the room, and has improved so steadily that she hopes to return home at an early date.

ONE MORE CANDIDATE.

Only one more candidate announced Monday, W. D. Gates, who has entered the race for commissioner. Mr. Gates is more familiarly known as "Pat" and has for several years been manager of the business of the R. A. Gates Fuel and Ice company. He is an enthusiastic member of the Young Men's Booster club, and his candidacy has been talked of for a number of weeks past.

The West Side Thursday club meets next Thursday with Miss Theresa Deutsch, 401 North Church street, at two o'clock.

ATHLETICS GROW IN PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM

All Students of High School, also 7th and 8th Grades Will Participate in Basketball—Teachers to Participate in Gymnastics.

Plans inaugurated at the High school, when carried to a completion will give all the students a chance to participate in athletics, even to the teachers of the entire public school system. Basketball is to have a large part in the plan at present, as it is the purpose to have as many boys and girls participate as possible, perhaps one hundred and fifty or more. All the boys and girls of the High school and 7th and 8th grades who remain at school during the noon hour, will be divided into two classes. The High school will have the hours from 12:05 to 12:40, and the 7th and 8th grades from 12:45 to 1:25.

The gymnasium will be used by the High school students from 5 till 6 on Mondays and Tuesdays; the 7th and 8th grades from 5 till 6 on Wednesdays and Thursdays. The 5th and 6th grades will have from 40 minutes to one hour periods.

There are fifteen or twenty students who compose the first and second teams of the high school basketball squads. They will not be in the new schedule but will play each night in the gymnasium from 8 o'clock on.

The teachers of the public schools will also have a chance for gymnasium training and they will meet each Friday evening from 4 till 6, the classes being in charge of the coaches. This will give each class an hour's time. The principals of the wards and substitute teachers will also have the opportunity of participating in these classes.

Let us clean and press your suits. We guarantee satisfaction. Purity Shop, phone III. 1124. 216 S. Sandy.

INJURED BY FALL.

W. H. Galloway who resides at Woodson is confined to his home as the result of a fall from a porch last Saturday. McKAVITT FOUND GUILTY OF MALICIOUS MISCHIEF

George Murphy is Acquitted of Same Charge. — New County Judge Handles Bootleggers Gently.

The first jury trial case, to come before Morgan county's new judge, William E. Thomson, came up for hearing Monday and was that of the people vs. Edward McKavitt and George Murphy, charged with malicious mischief.

McKavitt was found guilty of this charge by the verdict of the jury and was assessed the costs in the case and given thirty days in the county jail. The defendant Murphy was found not guilty of the charge and was released.

On Labor day last it is said McKavitt took a horse and rig belonging to Stansfield Baldwin, which was tied near the Farrell bank. He later picked up George Murphy and the two are said to have driven about the town and vicinity considerably.

When captured near the square that evening McKavitt asserted that he was returning the rig. His defense was that he thought that the rig belonged to Arthur Dunlap, who knew him and who would not care if he borrowed it for a while.

The Anti-Horse Thief association assisted Mr. Baldwin in the prosecution of the case. J. O. Priest, represented the defense, while M. T. Layman was retained to assist State's Attorney Tilton.

The jurors chosen to try the case were: Ira Austin, E. R. Carlisle, J. H. Denny, J. F. Berry, Logan Black, Milton Spainhower, Frank Worrell, W. T. Parker, Perry Cowger, Sidney Smith, Harry Trotter and Thomas Winters.

Frank Cox Gets Light Sentence.

The case of Frank Cox, charged with selling liquor in anti-saloon territory, was the first to come up for hearing before Judge Thomson. Cox pleaded guilty to one count of the indictment and was given a fine of $75 and fifteen days in jail.

This was Cox's second offense. On the first occasion the defendant appeared before Judge E. P. Brockhouse and received a fine of $300 and ninety days in the county jail. Cox was arrested on information filed in the county court charging him on five counts of selling liquor in anti-saloon territory. He has been at liberty on bond since that time. By arrangement with the state's attorney, it is said, the last four counts of the indictment were dismissed and the defendant pleaded guilty to the first count when court convened yesterday morning. It is also understood that Cox was willing to stand the maximum penalty on the one count, by the agreement, if the other four counts were dismissed. The maximum penalty for violation of the one count of the indictment would have inflicted a fine of $200 and thirty days in jail.

Instead of sentencing the defendant as per the reported agreement of State's Attorney Tilton the judge held different views of the matter and announced that as this was the defendant's second offense he must receive a severe sentence. He stated that the minimum penalty under the law was a fine of $50 and ten days in jail, while the maximum is $200 and thirty days. He held, however, that as the defendant had pleaded guilty to the charge that he would make the sentence fifteen days in jail and a fine of $75.

This was the first opportunity which Judge Thomson has had to pronounce sentence for a violation of the anti-saloon law. The enforcement of this law has, previous to the present term, been in the hands of Judge Frances E. Baldwin and Judge E. P. Brockhouse. Both of these men made a good record for vigorous methods in handling violations of this law. It was the exception and not the rule when an offender got off with less than the maximum punishment specified by law when the case was handled by Judge Brockhouse.
